Report of the Webinar/ Event / FDP Program:

Faculty of Behavioural Sciences, SGTU, in collaboration with PSYCA, the academic organization of the Faculty of Behavioural Sciences, organized a three-day workshop on "building skills for employment" for students of C.H.L. Government College, Chhara, Jhajjar. Ms. Aastha Dhingra, Advisor PSYCA, commenced the event by explaining the significance of the event to the students, encouraging them to come with zeal and passion. Under the supervision of Dr. Amra Ahsan, Ms. Devika Raje, Dr. Farhat Jahan, and Ms. Aastha Dhingra, our students Mohit Gupta, Rahul Gupta, Kunal, Jatin, Akansha, Vishal, and Manish, they conducted various psychological tests on them to assess their attention span, IQ, cognition, personality, and judgement.

Every day, Ms. Aastha conducted a 30-minute motivating session for the students, during which she addressed their worries while learning about their personalities using graphology. All three days were jam-packed with activities. The outcomes of all the tests were discussed with the students on the concluding day. PSYCA member Mohit Gupta, together with Dr. Farhat Jahan and Ms. Aastha Dhingra, analyzed all of the data and informed each student personally, as well as
